

Carol Mena Quick
Attorney
Debra K. Schuster, P.C.

Carol Mena Quick is an Elder & Disability Law Attorney at Debra K. Schuster, P.C., located in Olivette, Missouri.

Ms. Quick earned her B.A. in Spanish Literature at the University of Missouri-Columbia, and her M.A. in Legal Studies from Webster University in St. Louis, MO. She received her Juris Doctorate and Certificate in Health Law from Saint Louis University School of Law.

Ms. Quick's prior work experience in the health care industry includes positions at Novartis Pharmaceuticals, Pharmacia Corp., Pfizer Inc. and Express Scripts. She is licensed to practice law in Missouri and is a member of the Missouri Bar Association, Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, the Life Care Planning Law Firm Association, the Missouri chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and a Board Member-at-Large of the Hispanic Bar Association of St. Louis.

Ms. Quick is a graduate of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro St. Louis' Latino Leadership Institute class II.

Her areas of practice include adult guardianships, probate, estate planning, and other matters affecting the aged and disabled.